ESTABLISHED

ONE PRICE TO ALL NEVER UNDERSOLD

THREE GREAT LEADERS FOR FRIDAY

FROM 2 TO 5 P. M.

Gents' Furnishing Dept.

White Goods Department.

White English Nainsook

A GREAT HOSIERY SPECIAL FRIDAY, 2 TO 5 O'CLOCK.

Ladies' $1 Grade Silkateen Hose--43c

40 dozen extra fine quality fast black, full regular made silkateen

CORRECT DRESS FOR WOMEN.

MID-

216 SOUTH MAIN'ST

FROCKS

Of Interest to Women. -

"你你你你你你你你你你你你你你你你你你你

与你我我我我我我我我我我我我我我我我我我我我我我我我 INDERELLA OF ST. AUGUSTINE

BY E. W. STEWART.

yright, 1904, by E. W. Sargent.) IMMIE TOLLIVER regarded with decided interest the tiny shoe which lay on the center of the white counterpane. He had a eye for the attractive, and he of himself that this was a triof the cobbler's art; if, indeed, naker of such a dainty creation ded such a commonplace appellawas a low-cut shoe with patent her sides and white kid facings, e an unusual combination. Some-it seemed to appeal to Jimmic he removed it from the bed to the where it stood before his eyes he wrote the inevitable letter en, while he lazily puffed a ciga-, he invested the dainty bit of cear with all the attributes of a ance. How did it get there? Sureo chambermaid, even in a high-ed hotel, ever had boasted the pos-lon of such a creation. He turned er carefully, but there was not so ns a monogram in sight, retired to dreams which were with visions of tiny shoes that with visions of tiny shoes that beautiful girls and as unexpectshowed as mere shoes.

leed but for the presence of the on his table the next morning light have thought that the whole was a dream, for how is a edly feminine shoe to find its way the room of so confirmed a woman as Jimmie Tolliver? placed the shoe on the bureau ng safer than the table, and then down to breakfast. He ran afterward to change his coat trip over the golf links, and thed his room just in time to catch trange chambermaid making off shoe here, young woman, that's pet-warned Tolliver. was only taking it for the lady elonged to," demurred the dusky uh!" said Tolliver. "Who is the it belongs to?"

e woman could only look around essly. "Deed, suh," she ded, "the lady done tole me not to needs looking into. It's absurd for you to say that it's your own," with a glance at her ponderous feet. "How am I to tell that you are not taking it to make a match receiver or a pin ushion? I guess you had better leave here, and tell the owner to come and prove property."

"'Deed she won't come, suh," stammered the maid. "She done tole me to get it for her, and she'd give me a dollar. She don't want to come." Tolliver produced a two-dollar bill.

"See here, young woman, that's petty larceny.

"How did it come in my room?" he The girl's eyes opened wide. "You

I wish I did," murmured Tolliver. 'The lady-she dun get foolin' wid a fren.' She throw the slipper at her see thu lady-for once he and his mother were in accord on the matrimonial subject. They were sitting on the broad plazza the next night, Vivienne open-ing and closing her fan nervously.

had not done so.

tation as a flirt.

"Mr. Tolliver," she began, with an odd diffidence in he voice, "I want to ask you something."
"Even to the half of my kingdom," he quoted, with mock heroics.
"Not the half of a kingdom," she seemed to have lost its old personality

It only suggested Vivienne.

In a short time he forgot the slipper room. Dat's how it am done might wear such a tiny shoe, but with mentally protesting, but even his de-corrected with a laugh, "the helf of a pair of shoes."

"Eh? What?" stammered Tolliver,

"You have one of my shoes." she went on, "unless you have thrown it

"I assure you," he said, "the only lady's shoe I have is one that I found on my bed in St. Augustine. A darkey girl tried to make me believe that it had been thrown into the window, across a two-hundred-yard court."

Vivienne laughed. "I'm not as strong as that," she clared. "You see you were almost in the angle of the wall and the shoe flew diagonally. I had run up from Nassau to visit with Helen Redgold. and, as I was leaving the next morndemand for the shoe," "How did you know I had it?" he demanded, curiously.

"The maid told us who had the

"The maid told us who had the room." she explained.
"I'm sorry I can't give you that shoe," he said, half seriously, half in jest, "you see I have made it one of my household goods. The only way you can gain possession is to take the household along with it. Will you, Vivienne? I loved the wearer of that little shoe until I met you; then I loved you. It was all the same, but I did not know it. Will you take the shoe back and me along with it?"

It must have been all right, for Mrs. It must have been all right, for Mrs. Tolliver, nee Carroll, wears as a charm a tiny gold shoe encrusted with dia-monds. It was her husband's wedding gift and she calls it her mascot.

Langour and weakness, due to the ge-pleted condition of the blood, are over-come by Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great vitalizer.

Flower Bond Paid by Mrs. Storers

She Declares That Doctor Saved Her From Death, Hence Puts Up $20,000.

TEW YORK, June 8.-Mrs. Cornelius Storers paid $29,946.76 to Assistant District Attorney Miner, the amount, with interof the forfeited ball for Dr. Richard C. Flower, who is said to have obtained some $300,000 of the woman's money through mining schemes. He Liberty satins share the honors of the season with foulard and are eminently has disappeared. Mrs. Storers declared that Dr. Flower saved her from death; that she was grateful and had faith in him.

***************** SURE!

I'd like to know of a delicious hot meal-time drink to take the place of fren' and the fren' done dodge. It fly outen the window and fall into your event in Salt Lake in many a day, at least in the estimation of socie Tolliver glanced across the street.

That's a fine story, he mused.
It's a good two hundred feet across ty's little people, was the dancing party last evening at the beautiful Kearns bome, when Senator and Mrs. the street. She must have plenty of muscle." Then to the girl, "You tell the lady to send or bring the other Kearns entertained for their two young sons, Edwin and Thomas, Jr. The ball Shoe over and she can have this one.

With a nod to the waiting girl, he stepped inside the room, carefully oom was gay with American flags and vases of flowers, and here the future celles and beaux of the city danced the hours away to their own delight, and the locked the shoe in his trunk, and then went off to the links. That afternoon Tolliver did a very delight of all who watched them. No more charming picture could be imagined rude and inexcusable thing. He got out a pair of strong opera-glasses and scanned the rooms across the court. There was a band concert in the small stand in the center of the courtyard and he had a good look than these seventy little folks presented, the girls in the daintiest of summer frocks and the boys looking their best in their mannish evening suits. Lemonade was served during the dancing hours by at the girls across the way, but not one, he decided, was fit to wear the shoe. With a sigh he packed the shoe Lucile Jenkins and Lily Kearns. At halfpast 9 o'clock the little ones were invited to the dining-room downstairs, where back in his trunk.

But the shoe was not to be banished three long tables were laid and a feast of good things spread for them. At the plates of the girls were beautiful Japanese fans, while each of the boys received a cane, couvenirs of the occasion. Low bowls of deep red garden roses were used in the decoration of the tables, with slingle crystal candlesticks shaded in red lighting them. Roses were exattered loosely over the cloth, and red confections carried out this color idea still further. The little ones invited to onjoy the dance and who will recall the event as one of the most important in their childish social pleasures, were Marion Hall, Alleen McMillan, Dorothy Bamberger, Elsa Bamberger, Virginia Beatty, Venus Romney, Susie Cutting, Margaret Vadner, Mary Marshall, Cary Marshall, Dorothy Jacobs, Marlorie Jacobs, Afton Murdock Louise Bartling, Grace Coudon, Margaret O'Brien, Mary Woodward, Almira Jenkins, Norlane Thompson, Dorothy Rooklidge, Eva Younger, Emma Younger, Phyllis Sharp, Katle Adams, Helen Greenwood, Ruth Cooper, Carsie Woods, Helen Kearns, Kate Curley, Mary Wall, Will Hall, Taffey Hall, Harold McMillan, Allen Bradley, Brice Bradley, Nell Pratt, David Keith, Ir., John Lynch, Curtney Lynch, Lloyd Condon, Jack O'Brien, Charlie Condon, Wilbur Jenkins, Ralph Jenkins, Ezra Thompson, Jr., Verle Hanson, Arthur Moulton, Lawrence Rooklidge, John Sharp, Harold Greenwood, Ed Fitzpatrick, Hall Meakin, Hardy Meakin, Robert Meakin, Dan Gurnsey, Harry Gurnsey, George Curley, George Mourne, John Galligan and Morris Allen Daly.

Miss Elinor Stewart leaves Sait Lake today for southern California. three long tables were laid and a feast of good things spread for them. At the from his thoughts. It became instinct with life. Everywhere he went he looked for a woman whom he thought out avail.
Then came a summons from his mother. She was supplementing a winter in Nassau with a few weeks at Palm Beach, before going North, and Jimmie was called to Join her there. He left St. Augustine with regret, for at St. Augustine was probably the undiscovered Cinderalls. discovered Cinderella. And in Palm Beach was Vivienne Carroll. Now Tolliver particularly disliked Miss Carroll—not because he knew her, but because his mother wanted him to marry her and settle down. It had originally been planned that Jim-mic should run over to Nassau to meet them and escort them home, and was because of Miss Carroll that he He took the train for Palm Beach, slipper was forgotten at sight of his nother's guest.

She was slightly below the average height, but with a figure and carriage that did not betray the fact until she stood beside other girls. She had the graces of a queen, and grave blue eyes saved her from acquiring a repu-

Miss Elinor Stewart leaves Sait Lake today for southern California.

Miss Ellinor Stewart leaves Sait Lake today for southern California.

Mrs. Lylith C. Webber and Dr. C. F. Pinkerton were married last evening at Westminster Presbytstrian church. Rev. John Richelsen being the officiating clergyman. At the appointed hour. S. D. o'clock, a trio of young ladies, including Miss Rose Smithen, Miss Pearl Allebaugh and Miss Kate Johnson, sang "Leve's Old Sweet Song," with violth and plane secompaniment. As the bridal party entered the church the wedding march by Mendelssohn was played by Miss Frankle Sturgis, violinist, and Miss Lena Reeves, planist. The bridal party entered through the east door and advanced to the altar steps, where the betrothal service of the Episcopal church was read. First came the four ushers. Messrs George Walker, Howard Jones Harold Havenor and John Williamson. The maid of honor, Miss Angie Bickford, wearing a beautiful gown of white crepe de chine over taffeta and carrying a shower bouquet of pale plnk roses, came next, and immediately preceded the bride. The latter made a very charming picture in a gown of palest gray volle made entraine over white taffeta, the bodice trimmed with an exquisite bertha of point lace. She carried a shower bouquet of brides roses, and her only ornament was a sunburst of diamonds worn on the bodice, the sunburst a gift from the groom. Affer the bride came the bridesmaid, Miss Nellie Zenger, wearing a beautiful gown of white silk mulle over taffeta and carrying a bouquet of plak sweat peas. The little flower girl, ione Coulson, was a fairy-like vision in gown of pure white organide. She carried a basket of pale plnk roses. The groom and his best man, Dr. E. D. Hammond, met the bride and groom advanced to the pulpit, which had been converted into a bower of beauty by the use of many palms and branches of syringa biossoms, and here the marriage service was read. During the reading of the service Miss Sturgis and Miss Reeves played "Oh. Promise Me," and as the last words were sepace to five herdel party being later driven to the new Tolliver, from the moment he took her little hand in his, was sorry that he had not gone on to Nassau, and that night when he took the slipper out of the tray of his trunk, it somehow entirely. He had awakened to a real-ization of the fact that he was really in love with Vivienne Carroll, and that

Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes will receive inormally tomerrow afternoon from 3 to 6 clock at the Amelia palace.

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. George Dern for a series of card parties next week on Monday, Thursday and Friday evenings. Mrs. Dern also entertains at tea Monday afternoon in honor of her sister, Mrs. Frederick C. Dern of this city, and Miss Cora Brown of Fremont, Neb. Miss Brown will arrive the latter part of the week to spend some time with Mrs. Dern.

Mrs. Samuel Vinton Ham will be at

Mrs. Samuel Vinton Ham will be at home to her friends this afternoon at 364 East First South street.

Miss Gratia Fianders leaves shortly for the coast to spend the summer vacation.

Mrs. George Miller and daughter, Miss Miller, arrive today from Allegheny, Pa, to visit Mrs. Rachet Miller and daughters for a few weeks. Mrs. Rachet Miller will postpone her visit to Trail, B. C., for sev-

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Wragg arrived yesterday afternoon from Spokane to visit their mother, Mrs. D. E. Moore,

A handsomely appointed dinner was given Monday evening by Mrs. William P. Cooper at her apartments in the Emery in honor of Mr. Cooper's birthday. The table was beautiful with its decorations of pink roses and plumosa. Sliver candilabra with pink shades and satin bows were at either end of the table, while clusters of cherries were tied to the place cards with pink ribbons. An eight-course dinner was served to the following: Maj. Myton, Fisher S. Harris, E. A. Greenwood, A. C. Smith, C. C. Slade, W. S. Walker, J. M. Callow and Frank B. Cooper, Mr. Cooper was the recipient of hearty congratulations and several handsome presents.

Mrs. J. W. Nesbitt and daughter, Miss.

Mrs. J. W. Nesbitt and daughter. Miss Eleanor C. Nesbitt of San Luis Abispo, Cal., are visiting with the family of J. Willard Squires on their way to the St. Louis exposition.

Mrs. Wilson and Miss Wilson, mother and sister of Mrs. Thomas Kearns, have returned from their California visit and are guests at the Kearns home.

Miss Humphrey of Rowland hall leaves shortly for the East, and will do special work at Amherst during the summer months.

OCIETY

lays at Park City, where she was called by the illness of her mother, Mrs. Stowe, John Stewart Breyer of lows is in the city, a guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Breyer.

Friends of Mrs. Harold Russell will be glad to learn that she will arrive in Salt Lake on Monday next for a two weeks' visit with the Dwyer family After that Mrs. Russell goes to London for a season in Mercly Mary Ann," in which she made such a hit in the East during the season just closed.

Burton Holmes Dunn of Chicago a nephew of Col and Mrs. Holmes, is visiting Col. and Mrs. Holmes at the Amelia palace for a few days.

Miss Farnham, Miss Russell and Miss Simpson of Rowland hall leave shortly for the East. Miss Farnham will spend her vacation doing special work at Colum-bia. Miss Russell will visit relatives and friends in Vermont, and Miss Simpson will spend the summer in the lake region of Minnesota.

A large and elaborate event of this af-ternoon will be the tea to be given by Mrs. Francis S. Bascom at her home on Fifth South street.

Miss Sallie Leonard, so well known here, but who is now taking the training at the Johns Hopkins training school for nurses, is enjoying a three weeks' vacation at Old Point Comfort, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Junius F. Wells entertains at digner this evening in honor of their mother, Mrs. Martha Wells.

mother, Mrs. Martha Wells.

A thoroughly pleasant event of Tuesday evening was the reception given at the home of Mrs. A. W. McCinne to the stake officers of the Mutual Improvements association. About 800 guests were present, including the leading officers of the church, and a pleasant feature of the evening was the opportunity afforded the guests of inspecting the beautiful home. The informal programme was much enjoyed, consisting of solos by Will D. Phillips, Mrs. Nellie Druce Pugsley and Adelbert Beesley; duct, Wood and Noell Pratt; recitations Miss Ardella Bliner, Brigham S. Young and Mathonihah Thomas, and humorous anecdotes by Thomas Hull. Prof. Joseph J. Daynes acted as accompanist. The programme was carried out in the parlor on the first floor, while upstairs the guests engaged in a dance.

Several friends enjoyed a delightfully informal musicale yesterday afternoon at the studio of Louis W. Critchlow.

Mrs. David R. Gray yesterday received the sad news of the death of her aunt. Mrs. Calvin T. Burnes of St. Joe, which occurred yesterday morning Mrs. Burnes was a sister of Mrs. Gray's mother, the late Mrs. Thomas Marshall, and by marriage a grand aunt of Mrs. William H. Curtin, formerly of this city, but now of St. Joe. Mrs. Burnes visited here several times during the lifetime of Mrs. Marshall, and has many friends who will deeply regret to learn of her death.

Miss Leah Daniels of Prove is visiting friends in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Redman leave Salt Lake the latter part of the week for an extended trip through California.

Miss Vilate Elliott of Provo is visiting in * * *

Among the visitors in the city is Miss Eliza Turner of Morgan.

L. Mertin and family of B street are en-tertaining Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Floyd and Miss Mabel Floyd of Decatur, Ill.

WEAK STOMACH

Hot, cultry weather is especially apt to upset the stomach unless the system is kept constantly toned up and healthy, and digestion assisted, by taking

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

REASONS

You should let us do your dental work.

BECAUSE we guarantee cur work BECAUSE you know in advance just what your work will cost. BECAUSE we are graduates of the lost Eastern colleges. BECAUSE we have the best quipped office in the State and every sew method. BECAUSE we have introduced East n prices and are doing the best of ork at less cost than the old-timer.

 Full set of teeth.
 $5.00

 Gold crowns.
 22-k
 5.00

 Fold fillings
 $1.00
 up

 Wirer fillings 56c
 up

Painless extraction guaranteed fours 8 to 8. Lady attendant. Our eference, your neighbor.

Boston Dental Parlors 126 MAIN STREET.

McDonald's Chocolate Foam

our "Specials" for this week will be Fattern Hats at one-third HAMILTON'S

216 MAIN ST.

Also handsome linen coat suits will be seen this week-in

A handsome display of Fancy PARASOLS. The Suit Sale begins Monday at prices never before heard of. Among

In dainty white mulls and French gowns.

GRANITE IRONWARE SALE.

3-quart Tea or Coffee Pots, regular price 60c......40c
14-quart Dish Pans, regular price 75c .................50c 17-quart Dish Pans, regular price 90c ................65c

MONDAY AND WEEK.

Burbaker-Campbell Hardware Co.

27-20 West Third South.

Red Star Corn Cure 25C

is all it costs. Money back if it doesn't do the

DRUG COMPANY

Cor. 2nd So. and State. Tel. 552.

-Che Crystal Cafe- 2 239 MAIN STREET.

A Watch That Doesn't Go Is Better

Than one that doesn't keep good time. One is right every twelve hours and the other never is meet.

A good watch doesn't cost much these days, and it is a constant pleasure to own

We have the right kinds; all makes; all guaranteed.

Salt Le ze City, Utah.

Has Opened.
Open day and night. Tel. 881-Y.
Tray Orders Solicited.

Tray Orders Solicited.

Ly Answered

of all-over lace; to make the skirt 13 yards 21, 11 yards 27 or 6% yards ches wide. A May Manton pattern of waist, No 4827, 2022 20 50 50, 20 70 No. 4375, sizes 22 to 30, will be matted to any address by the Fashion Deent of this paper on receipt of ten cents. Pattern No..... (Ten Cents Inclosed.) As orders are filled from the East, it will require about ten days from receipt of order to receive patterns.

LIBERTY SATIN CHIFFON.

eful and elegant. This one is white with waved lines of ecru and dashes rown and is combined with white chiffon and cream lace. The waist is a ming one and includes shirrings that give the broad effect and shoulder ming which intensifies the drooping line. The skirt is cut with a front and circular sides and is lengthened by a graduated shirred flounce. To the waist for a woman of medium size will be required 3% yards of ma-il 21, 3 yards 27 or 1% yards 44 inches wide with % yards of chiffon and 1/2

1637. FANCY WAIST.

DESIGN BY MAY MANTON.

4375 THREE-PIECE SKIRT.